

Nagoya Employment Service Center for Foreigners

What is Nagoya Employment Service Center for Foreigners?

It is a public employment security office which provides foreign nationals with employment services.

We provide work-related advice and introduce possible job opportunities to following foreign nationals living in Japan: those who are permitted to engage in any type of work with appropriate statuses of residence, international students who wish to work for Japanese company after graduation, and those who look for a job in specialized or technical fields.

English interpreter is available to help you.

For Japanese descents (Nikkeijin), we introduce the nearest Public Employment Security Office (Hello Work) and days on which interpreter is on duty there, because of closing of Nagoya Nikkeis.
